Revolution
Fort Wayne, Indiana

1919-1920

The Mary Penrose Wayne Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was organized under the Constitution of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution April 21, 1901. The Charter was granted January 20, 1902. The Chapter is named in honor of the wife of the intrepid General Anthony Wayne, to whom the West owes an everlasting debt of gratitude for the establishment of peace and the opening of the blood-stained frontier to the forces of civilization and enlightenment.

Daughters of the American Revolution

OBJECTS OF THE NATIONAL SOCIETY
FROM THE NATIONAL CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE II

1. To perpetuate the memory of the spirit of the men and women who achieved American Independence, by the acquisition and protection of Historical spots, and the erection of monuments; by the encouragement of historical research in relation to the Revolution and the publication of its results; by the preservation of documents and relics, and of the records of the individual services of Revolutionary soldiers and patriots and by the promotion of celebrations of all patriotic anniversaries.

2. To carry out the injunction of Washington in his farewell address to the American people, "To promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge," thus developing an enlightened public opinion, and affording to young and old such advantages as shall develop in them the largest capacity for performing the duties of American citizens.

3. To cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, to foster true patriotism, and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

AT THE April meeting a motion was made that we increase the dues to $3.00 and at the May meeting this motion was carried unanimously. This action was felt necessary for the following reasons: Many Chapters pay $10.00 per year and very few less than $3.00. This year we have to send $1.25 to Washington and 20c to the State per capita, which would only leave us 55c to pay for year books, stationery, flags, etc. We are expected to mark some Historical spot each year and Washington is very anxious that we assist in the Americanization work, donate to mountain schools, etc. By increasing the dues $1.00 there will be no necessity of a special assessment and all members will share equally in carrying on the Patriotic work of the Society. December 6th is set as Due Day and we hope all will bear this in mind and remit not later than that date, as after January 1st, all whose dues remain unpaid are put on the delinquent list in Washington.

OF THE

Daughters of the American Revolution

ORGANIZED 1901

NAMED IN HONOR OF THE WIFE OF
GENERAL ANTHONY WAYNE

Calendar 1921-22

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

—Authorized Version.
